

PNWAS NEWS BULLETIN 142

WELCOME TO SUMMER PNWAS 2019 AND MAKAH DAYS CAMPOUT!!!!

We are preparing for our annual PNWAS summer camp out at the Hoko River Mouth Retreat.

This Fall and Winter we are working on programs including one by Rick McClure, Retired U.S. Forest Service Archaeologist, Friday October 18th, entitled: Aypax-kan-ishchit—The Yakama-Cowlitz Trail: History, Archaeology, and an Approach to Evaluation (Friday October 18th), and a book signing on the new and updated edition of: Basketry from the Ozette Village Archaeological Site by Dr. Dale R. Croes, W.S.U. and PNWAS Director (Our Xmas Party, Friday December 20th).

Exact program descriptions coming soon, but do mark your calendars for these two final 2019 PNWAS programs so far scheduled at the Mountaineers Seattle Programs on Fridays from 7-9pm:

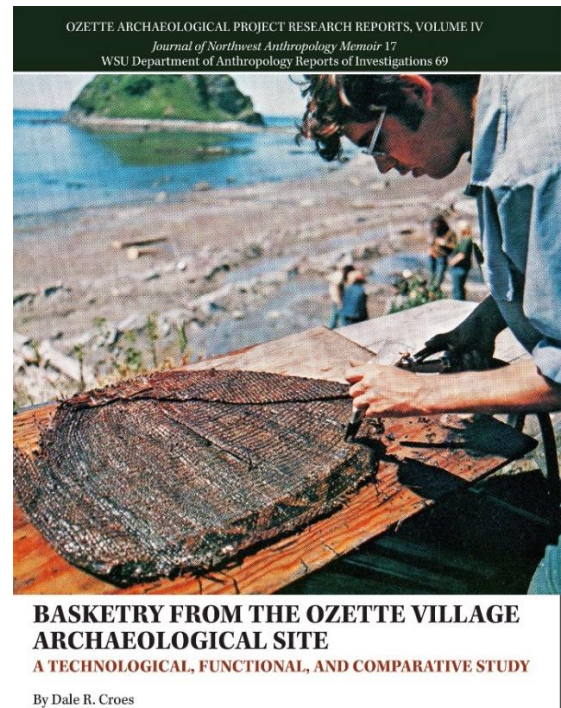

Reserve: October 18th, and December 20th, 2019

PNWAS Summer Fieldtrip—
August 23rd-25th, 2019, for the Hoko
River Mouth Retreat (HRMR)
campout and MAKAH DAYS—
Celebrating the Ozette Dig and 40th Anniversary of Makah Museum!
Bring family and friends

Since Time Immemorial

We are excited about this year's Makah Days campout at Hoko, August 23rd-25th, 2019—they are celebrating the Ozette Digs and will have special signings of Ozette Volumes I-IV at the Museum for an hour or so. Volume IV is PNWAS Director, Dale Croes' new and updated Ozette Basketry book:

Please sign up for this summer's Makah Days campout at the Hoko River Mouth Retreat for all the celebrations and good vendors and foods (see details below). ALSO member and Master basketweavers Kay Harradine and Vickie Lash are developing a cedar bark basketweaving class for attendees.

Join us at Hoko River Mouth Retreat for this years Makah Days celebrations, with Ozette Digs theme and 40th Anniversary of the Makah Museum, August 23-25, 2019!

PRELIMINARY AGENDA:

- ❖ Arrive at the Hoko River Mouth Retreat on Friday afternoon and set up your tent camp for our weekend campout.
- ❖ After Saturday morning breakfast we will pack lunches and go to Neah Bay to enjoy a Makah Days parade, youth dances, canoe races, their wonderful salmon bake, and great vendors for shopping! Also Ozette Book signings, tours of the Makah Museum and hike to Cape Flattery.
- ❖ Sunday you have the option of hiking around the area and pack equipment and bag lunch to leave or hike down to the Ozette Site and stay another night.
- ❖ If you stay until Monday, we will have a tour around Hoko and pack equipment and bag lunch for trip home.

What to Bring with You to the Hoko River Mouth Retreat—You mainly need to bring a sleeping bag, sleeping pad and tent to camp on the Hoko River beach. Other things you should bring are: camp chairs, rubber boots (for tidal collecting), rain gear (just in case), flashlight, sun glasses, pocket knife, bathing suit (river is warm!?), changes of clothing and personal snacks.

And we have a canopy with a kitchen (hot/cold water stainless sinks, refrigerator, propane stoves, pots and pans, and paper plates/plastic ware/ firepit with two grills and lots of firewood/enclosed hot/cold shower facility/two deluxe outhouses (with lights and cassette-tape/radio!) as the main toilet; also you can see some of the facilities on web: <http://hrmr.weebly.com/> . You will park your van/car/camper-on-pickup at Hoko on the lawn by the beach--the road is gravel and steep, but ok, however it will not support large trailers or RVs, so DO NOT bring them! You cannot get them back up the gravel road.

DATE: Friday, August 23rd-25th, 2019
TIME: Meet at HOKO RIVER MOUTH RETREAT Friday afternoon to set up your tents
PLACE: Hoko River Mouth Retreat west of Sekiu, Washington on river mouth beach (maps will be sent)
COST: $60.00 each for members, $75.00 each for non-members (please renew membership for 2018 and these programs at <http://www.pnwas.org> and pay through PayPal at this web site) or mail a check to our PNWAS address, 1219 Irving Street SW, Tumwater, WA 98512, for your reservation by August 16th. Also see Hoko River Mouth Retreat web site at: <http://hrmr.weebly.com/> where you can also pay through PayPal. All facilities and food for meals in camp are covered for the weekend. We will send you directions and maps when you signup.

Pacific Northwest Archaeological Society

1219 Irving Street SW Tumwater WA 98512

Join at <http://www.pnwas.org>

Join us Friday August 23rd-26th, 2018 weekend for Hoko River Mouth Retreat Campout and MAKAH DAYS 2019, celebrating the Ozette Dig in Neah Bay. Hike, enjoy covered campfire, Parades, Makah Dancers, salmon bake, Makah Museum, Cape Flattery, row boats, and sunsets.